The app provides all the essential contact information needed by professionals in law and government every day, making it simple and efficient to locate an attorney, a local prosecutor, judge or court administrator.

The new LDM app includes the intuitive functionality mobile device users expect from modern applications, including the ability to place a phone call, compose an email or obtain driving directions with just a click. After a search, the results display the same critical information subscribers trust from the Lawyers Diary and Manual including:

- State and federal departments and agencies, including key personnel
- Municipal courts and municipal officials
- Insurance companies, including direct-dial numbers to claims managers

New Jersey Association for Justice (NJAJ) members attending this week's Boardwalk Seminar at Harrah's in Atlantic City, NJ can see an in-person demo of the new LDM app when they visit Lawyers Diary and Manual representatives at Booth #958.

The LDM app is currently available for accessing contact information related to law and government in the state of New Jersey. A version of the app for each of the other four jurisdictions currently served by Lawyers Diary and Manual (New York, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Florida) will be available in the third quarter of this year.

The new LDM app can be downloaded from the App Store for iPhone users and the Play Store for Android devices, with subscriptions priced at $4.99/month or $49.99/year for each jurisdiction.
